SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Memorial Stones • Pastor Derek Vreeland • September 11, 2022

1. What was one of your first memories as a child?

2. What were you doing on Tuesday, September 11, 2001? What stands out to you about your memories from that day?

Read Joshua 4:4-8

3. How did these memorial stones function in the collective memory of the ancient people of God?

4. What is the value in staying present to the presence of God in the present moment?

5. Why is it necessary to revisit memories from the past?

6. Have you experienced moments of “crucifixion” and moments of “resurrection” in your life? Where have you found hope?

7. How does the resurrection of Jesus serve as a memorial stone for us?

8. What are the differences between a worldly and a Christian memory of September 11, 2001?

9. Jesus described a “resurrection of judgment” (John 5:29). What do you think this kind of judgment looks like?

10. How can the resurrection of Jesus heal you of painful memories from the past?
